BEST POINT OF SALE SYSTEM ON A LINUX OPERATING SYSTEM

This Point of Sale software for micro, small and medium businesses. Supports many POS terminals with a single database on a network, meaning as many as five computer can use one single database, in as much the machines are on same network. Attach with a lot of flexibility and wonderful features of a linux machine, plus a thermal/parralel printer for receipt, barcode reader and cash drawer makes a complete set of POS system that will transform your sales with:

- Group or Packs of products photo
- Special Orders [custom products]
- CUPS printers support, beautiful tickets
- User Roles
- Beautiful customised receipt
- Printed Reports
- Lock Screen
- Suspend/Resume Sales
- Currency conversion for multiple currency support

- With support for tracking tax nicely

- Easy to use Retail Point of Sale Software

- Low cost POS system, High performance, NO MONTHLY CHARGES.

It is considered to be a general point of sale, not focused to a specific sector. It can be used at a general store, a fast-food restaurant or a book store, virus free compare to windows Operating System, and the POS System will be Harden by our in-house security team, as part of making the Linux Operating more secure than it default settings that came shipped with it.

For delivery and installation of package visit Futuristic Security on http://futuristicsec.com or you can kindly mail us on zak@futuristicsec.com for further inquery.